Florida Panhandle Devastated by Hurricane Michael

IMEA Mutual Aid Relief

IMEA line crews from Rensselaer, Logansport, Scottsburg, Henderson KY., Lebanon and Anderson arrived in Tallahassee Fl. Thursday afternoon to assist in the massive relief efforts. IMEA Executive Director Duane Richardson and 27 linemen are part of over 550 Public Power Mutual Aid personnel involved in the restoration efforts in Florida. Tallahassee has restored nearly 100% of their customers that could be restored. One municipal distribution system was completely destroyed and is no longer from a mutual aid effort and designated as a complete rebuild. IMEA Crews were released from Tallahassee Wednesday and returned home Thursday afternoon.
