IMEA Welcomes Scott Hanawalt

IMEA is pleased to announce the appointment of Scott Hanawalt, Project Engineering Manager of Logansport Utilities to the board of directors. Scott brings a wide variety of knowledge and experience to the team, and we look forward to his insights and fresh ideas.

Through the combined and collaborate leadership of hundreds of individuals who have served as members on the IMEA Board of Directors over eight decades, the IMEA has successfully enabled its members to more than recover the costs of their annual membership many times over. IMEA has never lost sight of its founding principles, commitment to the advancement and protection of municipally owned electric utilities in Indiana and the right of its citizens to keep local control and services close to home.

Officers:

- President: Randall Ennis – Washington
- Vice President: Doug Middleton – Argos
- Secretary Treasurer: Jeff Greeno – Lebanon

Directors: (Scott Hanawalt, Logansport Utilities)

- Matthew Lentsch – Mishawaka
- Brian Chapman – Gas City
- Todd Corrie – Frankfort
- Willie Daniels – Scottsburg
- Shawn Lickey – Columbia City
- Jason Quirk – New Carlisle
- Scott Hanawalt – Logansport

Our Mission

The Indiana Municipal Electric Association (IMEA) is a service organization formed in 1941. IMEA is an invaluable resource and voice for Indiana's Public Power Communities - from the smallest to the largest. IMEA plays an important role in promoting trade laws, providing networking opportunities among competitors, providing a voice for the industry when it comes to regulations and new legislation and providing tools such as best practices for that industry. We are dedicated to our founding principles of providing programs and services that bring Indiana municipals the protection, knowledge, experience, and tools needed for the safe, efficient and effective utility operation in today's complex, diverse and ever-changing industry.

Edinburgh Municipal Power & Light New Superintendent Stephen Clarke

Stephen's public power career began with Edinburgh, October 2011. Over the years his career goals led Stephen to pursue other opportunities and returning too Edinburgh in May 2023.

Stephen replaced recently retired superintendent Kevin Rubush and will be a great team leader and mentor for the young electric utility. Edinburgh Municipal Power and Light serves approximately 2,735 customers.

Edinburgh New Town Manager Kevin McGinnis

Kevin served as Bargersville's town manager for two years and most recently was Whiteland's town manager before retiring in January 2022.

He started a new job as Edinburgh's Town Manager, replacing Wade Watson who served as the interim Town Manager for the past year and will resume his role as Planning Director for the remainder of the year.

Jobs in Public
Power

Public power is more to communities than just an essential utility. It is a source of unique and fulfilling career opportunities in your local community. Employees make a difference by serving their own neighborhoods and families. Talented high school, college and technical college graduates—and even technology, environmental and public service professionals—will find that competitive salaries aren't the only this attractive about careers in public power.
