IMEA APPRENTICE 613 WORKSHOP

IMEA Apprentice 613 Workshop was held this Monday, September 9 - Friday, September 13, 2024, in Frankfort, In. During the IMEA Apprentice 613 workshop participants received instruction on operation, troubleshooting, and metering of overhead and underground distribution systems. Upon their completion, participants will be able to demonstrate the knowledge and skill needed for the operation and troubleshooting of underground and overhead distribution systems. Energized conditions will be simulated during segments of the workshop held during the week.

IMEA 613 apprentices assisted Frankfort Electric by changing out pad mount transformers.

Pride in Our Indiana Line Crews

From turning on the lights to powering multi-million-dollar manufacturing equipment, electricity is the core element that connects how we live and work day to day. Our Indiana line crews, first responders and neighboring utilities, assist connected communities in times of need. We pay tribute to your heroic acts of compassion and reliability to our City and Towns of Indiana. Thank you for all you do!

IMEA Pride in the Members We Serve

IMEA Board of Directors & Staff would like to thank Doug Middleton, IMEA Board President for your time invested in making Indiana Municipal Electric Association what it is today.

Careers in Public Power

Public power is more to communities than just an essential utility. It is a source of unique and fulfilling career opportunities in your local community. Employees make a difference by serving their own neighborhoods and families. Talented high school, college and technical college graduates and even technology, environmental and public service professionals will find that competitive salaries aren't the only thing attractive about careers in public power.
