

Follow Equipment Operating Procedures Safety Message

Operators must adhere to all safety procedures, including speed limits, horn use, and pre-operation inspections. Ground personnel should never approach moving equipment and must wait for a complete stop and acknowledgment from the operator before getting close. Consistency in following procedures prevents unexpected movements and injuries.