

Situational Awareness

Stay Focused: Routine jobs can become dangerous when we lose focus. Before each task, take a moment to identify hazards, discuss the work plan, and verify everyone understands their responsibilities. Eliminate distractions, communicate clearly, and never assume conditions haven't changed. A few extra seconds of awareness can prevent a lifetime injury.