

Driving & Backing Safety

Safe Driving Saves Lives: Many injuries occur before crews ever reach the job site. Wear your seat belt, eliminate distractions while driving, maintain safe following distances, and never rush to an outage. When backing any vehicle, use a spotter whenever possible, get out and look if you're unsure of your clearance, and remember that no outage is worth risking a preventable accident. Arriving safely is the first step in completing the job safely.